Join OSU Extension and the Trumbull County Master Gardeners as they host an educational seminar titled “The Good, The Bad & The Hungry - Controlling Nuisance Wildlife in the Home Landscape” on Thursday, April 14, 2016 from 9:00 to 2:30 p.m. at the Trumbull County Extension office located at 520 West Main Street in Cortland, Ohio.

This class will be taught by Marne Titchenell, OSU Wildlife Program Specialist for The Ohio State University. During this class, participants will learn how to deal with wildlife conflict. Learn tools to manage and live with deer, geese, rabbits, skunks, bats, moles, voles, raccoons, woodchucks, and urban coyotes.

This class is open to both Master Gardeners and the general public. For Master Gardeners, this class is worth 5 hours of continuing education.
