

What's Trending Now?

First Friday Lunch and Learn Series

Presented by the Emerging Ag Issues Team

October 13, 2017, 1 p.m.

Citation Needed: A New Student Group Communicating About Science

Presenter: Haley Chatelaine, President

Learn how Extension can partner with this group that is bringing scientists, communicators, and every day folks to the same table.

Find out more at u.osu.edu/citationneeded

November 3, 2017, 12:00 p.m.

Impacts of Pipeline Construction on Agriculture Soils

Presenter: Steve Culman, Asst. Professor and State Specialist in Soil Fertility, SENR

What do we really know about the effects of pipeline construction and reclamation on soil structure and future agricultural productivity?

December 1, 2017, 12:00 p.m.

What Does Climate Change Mean for Agriculture?

Presenter: Aaron Wilson, Sr. Research Assoc., OSU Byrd Polar & Climate Research Center

Tools for discussing climate change, and potential implications for agriculture in Ohio.

Find out more at bpcrc.osu.edu

January 5, 2018, 12:00 p.m.

A Volatile Issue: Perspectives on Dicamba Drift

Presenters: Mark Loux, Professor and State
Weed Specialist, and Peggy Hall, Asst.
Professor and Ag Law Specialist

Update from Ohio about dicamba use, volatility, and legal consequences of drift.

Keeping you up-to-date about trending issues in agriculture

For questions, contact:

Julie Moose
moose.14@osu.edu
614-292-2433

Join the discussion via Zoom, at [u.osu.edu/
emergingissues](http://u.osu.edu/emergingissues)

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

u.osu.edu/emergingissues