Graduating this December?

Check your email! You should have received an email from Renee Johnston last week with important commencement information. Please read the email thoroughly and keep for your reference. Much of the information can also be found on commencement.osu.edu.

Access Notes from Your Advising Appointments

Have trouble recalling the details of your appointments with your academic advisor? Did you know that the academic advising team utilizes a note system called Advising Connect that you can access? We enter advising notes after most appointments in order to keep the details straight for us and you. You can log into your notes by going to <http://advisingconnect.osu.edu> with your name.# and password. We encourage you to check it out!

Volunteer Opportunities

EPA

The EPA is seeking 15 young adults who are involved in climate change efforts and/or advocacy to join the NEJAC Youth Perspectives on Climate Justice Work Group. The Work Group will be convened in January 2016, to assist the NEJAC in developing advice and recommendations to address climate change concerns as highlighted from a youth perspective. Applications are due Nov. 30. Click HERE for more information.

Apply to be an ENR Peer Mentor!

Become a peer mentor and you can help demystify the SENR experience for incoming freshman and transfer students next autumn. Peer mentors act as guides for new ENR students, help facilitate the ENR Survey course, and answer questions about Ohio State and the School. Plus, as a peer mentor, you gain leadership experience and expand your professional network through connections with a multitude of faculty and staff. APPLY HERE.

Scholarship Opportunities

Garden Club of America

The GCA now offers 27 merit based scholarships, fellowships and awards in several areas of natural resources and agriculture including native bird habitat, conservation and ecological restoration, urban forestry, and coastal wetlands. Apply online at <http://gcamerica.org/scholarships>. Deadlines vary.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!
