How To Prepare For Finals

Let us know how you're doing!

As you heard from interim Dean King in his November 15 message, our college tragically lost one of our students over the last few weeks. In addition, there has been a rise in activism and incidents of harassment and hate across the country and on OSU Campus. Given these recent events, the upcoming holidays and the end of the semester we wanted to check in. Please let us know how you are doing. This anonymous Qualtrics survey will take 3 minutes or less. All responses are anonymous unless you request a follow up.

Wishing you the best as you move toward the end of the semester.
