

Ohio Aquatic Invasive Species (AIS) Committee Meeting

10 December 2019

Lakeside Pavilion: Columbus Zoo and Aquarium, 4850 W Powell Rd, Powell, OH 43065

Agenda

9:30—Arrival, check in, and networking

9:50—Attendee introductions

Collections: new, old, and catalogued

10:00—More History of Sea Lamprey in Lake Erie

Don Arcuri, Ohio Advisor at Large to the Great Lakes Fishery Commission

10:15—The Invasive Asian Weatherfish in Ohio

Doug Sweet, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife (ODW)

11:00—Update on Grass Carp in the Great Lakes

Patrick Kocovsky, U.S. Geological Survey (USGS) and Nicole King, University of Toledo

11:20—Three Invasive Macrophytes in Ohio: Nymphaoides peltata, Hydrocharis morsus-ranae, and Hydrilla verticillata

Mark Warman, Cleveland Metroparks

11:40—The USGS Nonindigenous Aquatic Species Database: Tools and Capabilities for Tracking Non-native Aquatic Species

Matt Neilson, USGS

Lunch

12:00—Sincere thanks to our host, the Columbus Zoo and Aquarium, for providing lunch!

Control and policy/management

1:00—Full-lake Eradication of Dreissenid Mussels Using Low Doses of Ionic Copper

David Hammond, PhD, Earth Science Labs, Inc.

1:30—ODA Listing Update

Daniel Kenny, Ohio Department of Agriculture (ODA)

1:40—OIPC Update

Jennifer Windus, Ohio Invasive Plants Council (OIPC)

1:55—Asian Carp “à la Carte”

John Navarro, ODW

Conclusion

2:15—General discussion, next meeting time frame, and adjourn

Eugene Braig, OSU Extension

Tour:

2:30 (approx.)—Tour and facility news with zoo staff