

Ohio Aquatic Invasive Species (AIS) Committee Meeting

19 November 2018

Stratford Ecological Center, 3083 Liberty Rd., Delaware, OH 43015

Agenda

10:00—Arrival, check in, and networking

10:15—Attendee introductions

Partnership and outreach

10:20—Central Ohio Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management: Update and Opportunities

Karen Seidel, The Nature Conservancy

10:40—Updates on AIS Prevention from the Recreational Boating Industry

Sarah Orlando, Ohio Sea Grant College Program

Listing

11:00—Latest Injurious AIS Candidate Species Discussion

Kevin Kayle, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife (ODW)

11:20—ODA Invasive Plant List and OIPC Recommendations

Dan Kenny, Ohio Department of Agriculture (ODA)

Jennifer Windus, Ohio Invasive Plants Council (OIPC)

Lunch

11:40—Catering by Delaware Community Market (plan to toss $7—or $5–$10—into the lunch collection)

Interbasin

12:40—Making Progress on Closing Ohio's AIS Connections

John Navarro, ODW

Organismal news (Hydrilla and carps included)

1:00—Hydrilla in Ohio's Lakes

Matt Hangsleben, ODW

John Navarro, ODW

1:20—Grass Carp Spawning and SAV Survey Updates

Patrick Kocovsky, U.S. Geological Survey

Nicole King, University of Toledo

1:40—Grass Carp Postlude: Ohio's Five-year Plan

John Navarro, ODW

1:45— Changes in Distribution of Ohio's Non-native Fish Species
Brian Zimmerman, Ohio State University, School of Environment and Natural Resources and Museum of Biological Diversity

2:05— The Ohio River Asian Carp Program
Neil Gillespie, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Conclusion

2:25—General discussion, next meeting time frame, and adjourn
Eugene Braig, Ohio State University Extension

Tour

2:30 (or thereabouts)—Tour facility with Director Jeff Dickinson