

Ohio Aquatic Invasive Species (AIS) Committee Meeting

20 December 2022

Terradise Nature Center, 1536 Whetstone River Road North, Caledonia, Ohio 43314

Agenda

9:30—Arrival, check in, and networking

9:50—Attendee introductions

Policy and Management

10:00—Ohio AIS Update

John Navarro, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife

10:15—Invasive Plants Listing Update

Daniel Kenny, Ohio Department of Agriculture

10:25—Central Ohio Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management (COPRISM) Update

Chris Roshon, Preservation Parks of Delaware Co. and COPRISM

Fauna incursio

10:35—Can UV exposure deter another "bloody" invasive? Understanding the role of ultraviolet radiation in the spread of Hemimysis anomala in the Great Lakes

Addison Zeisler, Miami University of Ohio

10:55—Adaptive Management in Action: Grass Carp Control in the Great Lakes

Ryan Brown, University of Toledo—Lake Erie Center

11:15—Sea Lamprey Video and Discussion

Don Arcuri, Ohio Advisor at Large to the Great Lakes Fishery Commission

Lunch

Approx. 11:30–12:30

Flora incursio

12:30—ProcellaCOR Trials on Yellow Floating Heart

—Detection of Hydrilla in Alum Creek Lake

Mark Warman, Cleveland Metroparks

1:00—Ohio Invasive Plants Council (OIPC) update

Jennifer Windus, OIPC

Conclusion

1:15—General discussion, next meeting time frame, and adjourn

Eugene Braig, OSU Extension

Tour:

1:30 (approx.)—Tour facility with nature center affiliate(s) (Thanks, David!)