

Ohio Aquatic Invasive Species (AIS) Committee Meeting

24 May 2019

Grange Insurance–Audubon Center, 505 W Whittier St, Columbus, OH 43215

Agenda

10:00—Arrival, check in, and networking

10:20—Attendee introductions

Resources and Policy

10:30— Using GLANSIS as an Information Resource and AIS Update

Rochelle Sturtevant, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

11:00— AIS blitz project

Sarah Orlando, Ohio Sea Grant College Program

11:20— AIS guide and app

Tory Gabriel, Ohio Sea Grant College Program

11:40— VIDA update

Tom Rayburn, Lake Carriers Association

Lunch

11:50—Catering by Metro Cuisine (plan to toss $15 into the lunch collection)

Invasive Macrophytes

12:50— Ohio Department of Agriculture (ODA) invasive plant list, Ohio Invasive Plant Council (OIPC) recommendations, and Central Ohio Partnership for Invasive Species Management (CO PRISM) update

Eugene Braig, Ohio State University Extension (via notes submitted by Jennifer Windus, OIPC and Dan Kenny, ODA) and Karen Seidel, CO PRISM

1:00— Combatting European Frog-bit at Old Woman Creek NERR

Breann Hohman, Erie Soil and Water Conservation District

1:20— Hydrilla update

Mark Warman, Cleveland Metroparks

Invasive Fishes

1:35— Grass Carp in Lake Erie: Good vs. Evil

Patrick Kocovsky, U.S. Geological Survey; Nicole King, University of Toledo; and John Navarro, ODW

1:55— Ohio EPA non-native fish collections (maybe)

Ben Rich, Ohio EPA

2:15—A Brief History of Sea Lamprey Control in Ohio
Scott Winkler, Ohio EPA

Conclusion

2:45—General discussion, next meeting time frame, and adjourn
Eugene Braig, OSU Extension

Tour

2:55 (or thereabouts)—Visit the park and green facilities on your own (alas, park staff weren't available to guide)