SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Outdoor Writers of Ohio, Inc. (OWO) Education Committee and the OWO Spouse Organization again are offering scholarships for Ohio college students majoring in conservation-related courses of study, such as fisheries, wildlife, forestry, water quality, outdoor journalism, parks/recreation or other fields related to fishing, hunting and similar outdoor pursuits.

- The Wodrich-Andreoni Memorial Scholarship - from the OWO Spouse Organization (Ms. Jan Gross, Chair)
- The Outdoor Writers of Ohio Scholarship - from the OWO general membership; two or more scholarships will be awarded
- The Lawrence and June Brobst Family Memorial Scholarship
- The Toyota Let’s Go Places Scholarship
- Scholarships will range from $1,000 – $1,500

ELIGIBILITY: Each application will be considered for all scholarships. Applicants currently must be undergraduates attending an Ohio college, majoring in a field as described above. The recipients will be invited to attend, as our guests, the Outdoor Writers of Ohio annual awards banquet the evening of 25 April 2020 at Shawnee State Park, Scioto County, Ohio.

APPLICATION: Applicants should send:

- A short essay, not exceeding 250 words, describing the applicant’s career goals, field of study and how this scholarship would help achieve a degree.
- Either a college transcript or a copy of the last two semester’s grades (such as copies of online grade postings), or one semester for freshmen.
- A brief letter of recommendation (2-3 paragraphs) from a professor or an advisor.

Applications must include full names, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of applicants. Judging will be done by education committee members of the OWO Spouse and the Outdoor Writers of Ohio.

DEADLINE: Materials must be postmarked no later than 25 March 2020 and sent to:
