OUTDOOR WRITERS OF OHIO, INC.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Outdoor Writers of Ohio, Inc. (OWO) Education Committee and the OWO Spice (spousal organization) are offering scholarships for Ohio college students majoring in conservation-related courses of study, such as fisheries, wildlife, forestry, water quality, outdoor journalism, parks/recreation or other fields related to fishing, hunting and similar outdoor pursuits.

- The Dorothy Wodrich Memorial Scholarship - from the OWO Spice (Ms. Jan Gross, Chair)
- The Outdoor Writers of Ohio Scholarship - from the OWO general membership; two or more scholarships may be awarded
- The Lawrence and June Brobst Family Memorial Scholarship
- The Toyota Let's Go Places Scholarship
- Scholarships will range from $1,000 – $1,500

ELIGIBILITY: Each application will be considered for all scholarships. Applicants currently must be undergraduates attending an Ohio college, majoring in a field as described above, and have at least sophomore status but not graduating at the end of this term. The recipients will be invited to attend, as our guests, the Outdoor Writers of Ohio annual awards banquet the evening of 5 May 2018 in Guernsey County, Ohio.

APPLICATION: Applicants should send:

- A short essay, not exceeding 250 words, describing the applicant's career goals, field of study and how this scholarship would help achieve a degree.
- Either a college transcript or a copy of the last two semester's grades (such as copies of online grade postings).
- A brief letter of recommendation (2-3 paragraphs) from a professor or an advisor.

Applications must include full names, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of applicants. Judging will be done by education committee members of the OWO Spice and the Outdoor Writers of Ohio.

DEADLINE: Materials must be postmarked no later than 1 April 2018 and sent to:
