LAND MANAGEMENT SPECIALIZATION

2018-2019 Academic Year - Revised 1/1/2018

This program leads to a Master in Environment and Natural Resources degree. Requirements for students admitted to the major SU18 and later. X number of YYY courses totaling at least 34 credits are required. A grade of C– or better is required in all courses in the major. Maintaining a 2.0 GPA in the major is required after admission to the program.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
These courses are samples of core classes required for the Land Management Specialization. Explain here that students can choose tracks within the specialization.

YEAR 1

CORE COURSE 1111 - Managing Blah Blah
This text describes the course. This text describes the course. This text describes the course. This text describes the course.

YEAR 2

CORE COURSE 1111 - Managing Blah Blah
This text describes the course. This text describes the course. This text describes the course. This text describes the course.