Company Website

More information will be added before I present as this project is still in its early stages

I am currently working on a total revamp of the company's current website

- Focusing on using keywords to get "hits" on google searches
- Providing more in depth information about different areas that the firm practices in
- Adding in depth biographies for each of the attorneys

Reflection

I took this job to inquire about my interests in the field of law.

Through the process of working at this firm, I am still undecided on if law is something I would like to pursue, and have been exploring career options in many different fields. Regardless, the skills I have gained will help me succeed in almost any field. For a student interested in a similar experience, I would say that people skills are the most important thing; your ability to be kind yet confident will go a long way.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank Maddie Herman, for recommending me for this opportunity, along with Jared Reckard and Collin Finn who have been great throughout this whole process.
