Course Description
In this course, students will learn the principles of interpretation, the theory behind those principles, and the practical application of those principles in personal interpretive programs. Students will also learn the importance of using interpretation as a management tool which connects the audience with the resource, thus furthering the goals and objectives of an organization.

Course Goals
• To understand the principles of interpretation
• To understand the components of meaningful interpretation
• To hone the presentational skills required to conduct such interpretation

Course Objectives
• Students will be able to develop and deliver thematic interpretive presentations which form a bond between organization, audience, and resource using interpretive techniques
• Students will be able to demonstrate the management goals met by their interpretive programs
• Students will exhibit public speaking skills, both planned and improvisational
• Students will evaluate interpretive programs in an ongoing fashion with an eye toward constant improvement
• Students will view themselves as members of a body of professionals, and hold themselves to those professional standards.

Course Text

Attendance
Attendance and punctuality are required and expected. If you need to miss a class, please inform me in advance or have a written excuse for your absence from the Student Health Center. If you miss a class, you are responsible for copying the notes from a fellow classmate and then seeing me if you have any questions. If you have an unexcused absence for a presentation or exam, your grade will be entered as a zero.
Class Format
Classes will be a combination of lectures, activities, and student presentations. Discussion and questions are welcome; you sit amongst a synergistic group of your peers. Remember; always have a passion for what you are learning!

Disability Accommodations
The Office for Disability Services will be relied upon to notify me of the need for accommodation of a registered disability. You will also be expected to discuss your accommodations with me in person. If you need an accommodation based on the impact of a non-registered or temporary disability, please inform me so that we can discuss the class format, anticipate your needs, and explore potential accommodations.

Notes:
- Extra Credit is worth 5 points and will be typed and submitted at the beginning of class on the date the assignment appears. Your answer needs to be based on the assigned reading. No late submissions will be accepted.
- Writing skills ALWAYS count! Points will be taken off for poor composition and poor spelling.
- Faculty rule 3335-5-54 will be followed in the case of academic misconduct. Basically, don’t cheat, don’t plagiarize, and don’t be foolish enough to think I will let these kinds of actions slide.
Assignments, Exams, and Values
